

Australia does not have a food security problem

Australia is one of the most food secure nations in the world

1st

(equal lowest) undernourishment
according to the FAO

7th

in world for food affordability
in the Global Food Security Index

10th

in world for food availability
in the Global Food
Security Index

Australia produces substantially more food than it consumes

71%
of agricultural production is exported

Sugar
86%

Beef & veal 75%

Rice
74%

Mutton & lamb 73%

Canola
72%

Wheat 71%

Dairy products 40%

Fruit & nuts
31%

Pig & poultry 5%

Domestic food consumption is stable, while agricultural exports vary

Wheat

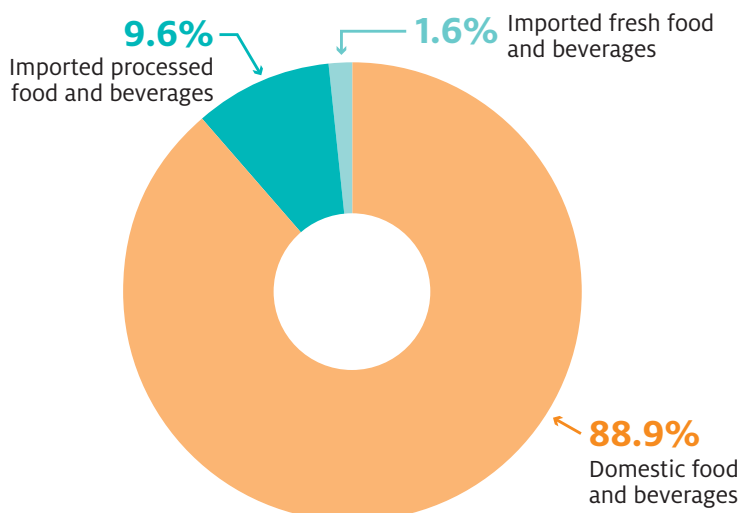

Note: Share of agricultural production exported by sector, 3 year average, 2015–16 to 2017–18.

Exports

Domestic consumption

We only import around 11% of our food
– motivated by taste and variety

Global food supplies are in good shape, and prices for staple foods are low

